

GE Power

Anne M. Alzapiedi

Executive Human Resource Business

Partner

Anne joined General Electric in 1997 as an HR Specialist for GE Silicones in Waterford, New York. Subsequently, she held positions with GE Plastics in Pittsfield, Massachusetts including Staffing Specialist, Global HR Manager for Manufacturing, EHS, Sourcing, IT and eBusiness and she is a certified Six Sigma Black Belt.

She moved to GE Commercial Finance in 2003 as the Organization & Staffing Manager for Vendor Financial Services and in September 2005, was named the HR Integration Leader GE Capital Solutions. In August 2006, Anne was named Capital Solutions HR Leader for IT, Operations, Lean Six Sigma, and Human Resources located in Danbury, CT.

Next, Anne assumed a Vice President of Human Resources role in the GE Capital Americas business supporting Operations, Regulated Operations, the Utah Bank, and Legal. Following that assignment in 2011, she accepted the role as HR Leader for GE Treasury located in Stamford, CT supporting an organization of 800 employees globally.

In 2013, Anne became the Newtown Recovery Program Leader where she led a private-public partnership providing leadership, vision, and strategic direction on a variety of after-crisis initiatives, while overseeing a group of GE employees dedicated to the Town of Newtown, CT. You can read more about the program in the attached article:

<http://www.newstimes.com/default/article/GE-Capital-team-deemed-Newtown-s-fairy-godmother-4651410.php>

In April 2014, Anne was named the Senior Human Resource Leader for GE Capital Operations and Information Technology. She was also named GE's 2014 Working Mother of the Year by Working Mother Magazine <http://www.workingmother.com/best-companies/anne-alzapiedi-ge-capital>.

Most recently, Anne has been named an Executive Human Resource Business Partner at GE Power- Gas Power Systems in Windsor, CT.

Prior to joining General Electric, Anne served as the Town Administrator for the Town of Belchertown, Massachusetts and the City of New Castle, Delaware and held leadership positions in local municipalities for eight years.

Anne holds a Bachelor of Science in Business from Skidmore College and a Masters of Public Administration from the University of Connecticut.

imagination at work